Draw the electric field vectors due to one of the following simple distributions of charges:

- two equal positive charges;
- a positive and a negative charge with equal magnitude;
- four equal positive charges, arranged in a square;
- a quadrupole, i.e. two positive charges and two negative charges arranged alternately around a square.

Solution See the solution to this activity in GSF: The Geometry of Electric Fields